

Annual MCLE Requirement

All Active and Emeritus attorneys must complete 12.0 hours of CLE out of which 2.0 hours must be in ethics and 4.0 hours must be live by 11:59 pm ET October 31.

All hours, whether completed for compliance or carry over credit, must be reported by 4:45 pm ET December 15 or the $100 Late Filing fee will be assessed.

What To Do

Check that your record is correct and complete online.

Is your record correct and complete?

Do not return this form. Keep it in your records, take no other action.

Still need to report hours?

Report approved courses (certificates will include the Virginia course ID number) online.

The online certification system will be open until 4:45 pm ET December 15.

Can't report online or need to report a course pending approval? Use this Form 1.

NOTE: Deliveries are accepted from FedEx, UPS, Richmond Express, DHL and USPS. Please do not fax or email your paperwork.

Approved courses not accepted online

(e.g. Certificates of Teaching, error received when trying to report online, etc.)

Attach your certificate(s) to this Form 1 and mail to the MCLE Department.

Courses pending approval

(e.g. A CLE provider has applied for CLE credit and the application is pending review.)

Write course information on the front of this form, sign it, and mail to the MCLE Department.

Ensure your certificates and Form 1 are completed and signed to avoid processing delays.

IMPORTANT

- Do not rely on courses pending approval to complete your CLE requirement. Complete approved programs to ensure your requirement is fulfilled as soon as possible.
- Sponsors do not report attendance to the MCLE department.
- You must have a certificate of attendance that includes the Virginia course ID number to report a distance learning program.
- If a sponsor is not seeking credit for a program you attended, you can submit the Attorney Application Form 4 with this form. Complete approved programs to ensure your requirement is fulfilled as soon as possible.

Deadlines
